

Grettir the Strong

The story of a tragic hero with a fatal flaw

A story of hauntings, treachery, bravery, violence and family love

Storytelling by Mary Hays and Karen Gummo; bards in the ancient art of the oral tradition

Saga Storytellers

Karen Gummo and Mary Hays, successful storytellers individually, have come together to present their unique adaptation of Grettir's Saga. Karen's passion for the Icelandic story forms the foundation for the two woman theatrical presentation. They work together to bring carefully selected sections of the 1000 year old story to life for the present day audiences. Their storytelling has touched audiences in:

Markerville - Alberta's home of the Icelanders • Saskatoon - World Storytelling Day Concert

Edmonton - TALES Fort Edmonton Storytelling Festival • Calgary - ProArts Series and ShelfLife Books

The storytelling was riveting & powerful.

Chris Lindgren - Saskatoon St. Guild

The storytellers are gifted in their ability.

I was transported to ancient Iceland.

Mark Petursson - Calgary, Alberta

They offer

Grettir the Strong - two hour concert

Saga Sampler - one hour concert

For more information about the work of Mary and Karen, please consult their websites.

Contact Karen for the fee schedule and to plan a Saga presentation for your group.

Karen Gummo in Calgary

403.284.0747

karengummo@shaw.ca

www.karengummo.squarespace.com

Mary Hays in Olds

403.556.2818

storymary@hotmail.com

www.storymary.ca

