

storymary.com

Mary Hays Storyteller

MEET MARY HAYS

Mary is a freelance storyteller and independent consultant for schools, public libraries, performance festivals, museums, parent and community groups.

Mary has BEd and completed her Associate Diploma in Speech Arts and Drama from the Mount Royal College Conservatory AMRC and the Royal Conservatory of Toronto ARCT.

Mary completed a Readers Theatre summer course in London, England offered by the University of Southern Maine and the Institute for Readers Theatre of San Diego.

She is a member of Storytellers of Canada and TALES (The Alberta League Encouraging Storytelling).

Mary produced the storytelling CDs, "A Collection of TALES" and "TALES on the Wind", which feature Alberta storytellers.

She released a CD of her own stories, "Come Away ... with story, music and song", with Voice Dance from Olds Alberta.

Mary is a published author:

- "The Queen and I" from Under the Wide Blue Sky, 2005
- "Girl Who Married the Morning Star" from World on a Maple Leaf, 2012
- Readers Theatre Scripts, U-Otter Read-it
- The Battle of Olds

Contact Mary for your own performance and workshop

Phone: 403-556-2818

E-Mail: storymary@hotmail.com

www.storymary.com